

The Jono Fisher Collection (A Private Membership Association)

INTRODUCTION

The intention of Jono Fisher Collection, a Private Membership Association (hereinafter the JF-PMA) is established in order to:

- 1.) Elevate the spirit of men and women.
- 2.) Restore beauty to the world - especially to the world of fine art photography.
- 3.) Build a private community of like-minded men and women who are interested in (1) and (2) above.

Every member joins the JF-PMA as a real flesh and blood living man or woman in their natural and highest character, capacity and standing; fully equal to all other men or women members.

In order to protect the JF-PMA and all members, as well as the artists, producers and printers from any adverse action by any other federal regulatory agency or any state agency, in exchange for the benefits offered by the JF-PMA, all members consent to the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement.

Membership extends to the household of the signee. Benefits of membership include access to information concerning the acquisition of fine art photographic prints and associated photographic and production services.

Please read this agreement carefully and make sure that you understand it. If you are unable to read or understand English, please have someone read and explain this agreement to you.

3.1.4 The Declaration of Independence, 1776 CE; and those expressly stated in or deemed to be included the rights secured to people by The Constitution for the United States of America, 1789 CE, as amended and ratified by passage of The Bill of Rights, 1791, as lawfully amended, including the Original XIII (Thirteenth) Article in Amendment to the federal Constitution. (hereinafter referred to as “the federal Constitution”) and the Laws of the United States that are made in pursuance thereof.

3.1.5 The Constitution or Form of Government for the People of Florida, 1838 CE, as lawfully amended (hereinafter referred to as “the Florida Constitution”) and the Laws made in pursuance thereof; and, the Constitution and the Laws made in pursuance thereof of any other state or commonwealth in which the JF-PMA also become sited, operates in or in which a member thereof lives.

3.1.6 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 1948 CE, of the United Nations.

3.2. In order for members to assert their rights, JF-PMA members consent to assert, stand upon and enforce all their applicable fundamental, unalienable, constitutionally secured, judicially or statutorily created or individually recognized rights.

3.3. All JF-PMA members consent to assert and stand upon their unalienable rights to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness; private property; the specific constitutionally secured and included rights and any statutorily recognized rights or rights derived from a case decision including, but not limited to, the rights to freedom of association, speech, the press, and privacy and acknowledge that all such rights are or can be applicable to all people.

3.4. All JF-PMA members agree to assert, stand upon and enforce all their rights especially those expressly enumerated in (or that by reason, logic and common sense, common-law, statute or case law have been incorporated in) Article I, Section 10 and Articles in Amendment One, Four, Five, Nine and Ten of the Florida and Federal Constitutions that secures to each and every member of the JF-PMA the absolute unalienable right to control their own body, mind and spirit.

3.5. All JF-PMA members agree to assert, stand upon and enforce their absolute freedom of speech and freedom of expression while dealing privately/individually with other JF-PMA members within the operation of the JF-PMA on matters that are or could be considered generally to be within the scope and purview of the JF-PMA.

ARTICLE FOUR (4)

Waiver of Privileges.

4.1. All JF-PMA members agree that they do not consent to and will not call upon, depend or rely upon any governmental authority for a determination of the lawfulness or legality of any form of any exchange of artworks, artworks related services or artwork production. The term "governmental authority" used in this agreement means and includes any and all local, municipal, city, county, state, federal or international governmental administrative agencies, subsidiaries or organizations; each and every agent, employee, officer, official or servant thereof weather acting in an administrative, judicial or in any representative character and capacity whatsoever.

4.2. Every JF-PMA member hereby specifically holds harmless and releases from liability each and every local, municipal, county, state, federal and international court (magistrate, judge or justice) from adjudicating any matter arising from participation in this JF-PMA and for any act or omission (except for an act or omission creating a “clear and present danger of substantive evil” as determined by a jury for a court of competent venue and jurisdiction) made by any JF-PMA member. No JF-PMA member shall grant any magistrate, judge or justice of any court in The United States of America, or any international court, personal jurisdiction over such member while acting within or who has acted within the scope and purview of this JF-PMA agreement until such member has exercised all available remedies set forth in this agreement.

4.3. All JF-PMA members hereby specifically agree that as long as each and every one of the above-referenced administrative agencies and personnel; courts and the officers thereof leaves each and every JF-PMA member alone that all JF-PMA members will waive any and all rights to either institute a case or civil action or become a proper party in any law suit or civil action against, or request criminal prosecution for the deprivation of rights under color of law for any of the above stated persons’ or entities’ attempt to deprive any member of his/her rights included or referred to herein.

4.4 In order to provide remedy for the above waived rights, all JF-PMA members shall have the right, starting first within the JF-PMA, to select a panel of members to serve as arbitrators to hear any grievance a member brings against either the JF-PMA or another member. The panel shall consist of a minimum of five members, two selected by the aggrieved party, two by the accused party and one selected by the JF-PMA. The fifth member shall be a Director of the JF-PMA unless the JF-PMA itself is accused. In any case that the JF-PMA itself is accused, the fifth member may be any other JF-PMA member who is not an injured or aggrieved party to the issue and who is agreeable to both the aggrieved party and the accused.

4.5. In the event that an internal arbitration is unsuccessful, all parties agree next to seek binding arbitration from a source outside the JF-PMA. This arbitration can be conducted by and according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or by any other recognized arbitration association or society that has established by their record that they deal fairly with all parties.

ARTICLE FIVE (5)

The type of association.

5.1. The JF-PMA is a fully informed voluntary meeting of the minds of free people acting in their natural, real, character, capacity and standing; associating together pursuant to the intent, purpose, express provisions, terms, conditions and principles set forth in this agreement.

5.2. The JF-PMA is not a public entity of any kind whatsoever created by or under any governmental authority or statute (a statutory association, corporation, Limited Liability Company, limited or general partnership, foundation, statutory trust, etc.).

ARTICLE SIX (6)

Benefits of Membership.

6.1. The JF-PMA offers people only one thing, membership. Membership includes access to fine art photography pieces and related photography services only.

6.2. Every JF-PMA member shall be entitled to access the member's only part of the JF-PMA's website and/or newsletter which can be in printed or electronic format.

6.3. No JF-PMA member accepts any liability for any acts or omissions committed by either the JF-PMA or by any other JF-PMA member.

6.4. Membership does not convey any right, title, ownership or interest in the JF-PMA or to any asset or property acquired or owned by the JF-PMA, including reproduction rights of the Jono Fisher Collection.

ARTICLE SEVEN (7)

Membership and consideration for membership.

7.1. The JF-PMA is open to every man or woman of lawful age who is competent to enter a lawful binding agreement and, through them, their family members and persons lawfully in their care, custody or under their control.

7.2. As set forth above, although everyone is welcome to apply for membership, in order to protect the privacy of the JF-PMA and the members thereof membership is neither offered nor available to any agent, employee, officer or official (person) engaged in any investigative or regulatory activity that is or may be relevant to the JF-PMA by any state, federal or international government or governmental administrative agency; licensing association or board; any person engaged in any form of law enforcement performing any investigative activity or function or while acting in any official or quasi-official character or capacity whatsoever for any government or governmental authority. Anyone in any such character and capacity privately requesting membership for the exchange of artworks or artworks related services must agree to uphold at all times the privacy of the JF-PMA and of any and all members such person may come into contact with. Every person acting in any manner whatsoever for any administrative agency of any state, federal or international government must agree that this agreement takes president over any public law and their employment or official position and agrees not to disclose anything seen, heard or discovered through membership contact with the JF-PMA and its members to any investigative or regulatory entity, state, federal or international.

7.3. All JF-PMA members agree that all members are equal. There is no, and there shall never be, any public "Agent-Photographer" or "Representative-Client" type relationship among JF-PMA members. When dealing with JF-PMA members offering artworks or artworks related services, all members waive the right to the protections offered to the public by any and all governmental authorities.

7.4. A list of all current JF-PMA members shall be kept by the Director.

7.5. Consideration for a One (1) year membership in the JF-PMA is Ten (10) Dollars, United States silver coin, real money of The United States of America, American Silver Eagle coin or similar. The membership fee includes all family members and persons in the member's care, custody or control. The form of money accepted or the stated amount may be modified or waived at the discretion of the Director or any Associate Director when requested by a prospective member and deemed to be in the best interests of the applicant however, in any event, all members agree that the JF-PMA membership benefits offered and received by the member are worth far in excess of Ten (10) Dollars, silver coin, real money of The United States of America.

ARTICLE EIGHT (8)

Operation of JF-PMA.

8.1. The JF-PMA shall operate by and through the Director. The founder shall serve as the first Director. The founder and first Director of the JF-PMA is jonathan-peter: fisher also known/ referred to as Jono.

8.2. The JF-PMA will thereafter operate by and through the Directors and as determined or deemed necessary by the Directors, one or more associate directors. Associate directors may be appointed or hired by the Directors. Associate directors may be assigned one or more specific duties and may also be a spokesman for the JF-PMA for all or certain matters.

8.3. The Directors reserve the right to select from among themselves, any member or any other man or woman they deem is best able to communicate to act as spokesman should the first spokesman resign, become incapacitated or die.

8.4. All records created or maintained by the JF-PMA, shall at all times be, and will always remain the private property of the JF-PMA regardless of who maintains custody of such record or where such record is archived/stored; any such record is protected by, at the minimum, Article IV in Amendment to the federal Constitution and the laws of The United States made in pursuance thereof.

8.5. The JF-PMA may adopt additional rules and regulations as deemed necessary by the Directors, at the sole discretion of the Directors.
